OUR STORY

One of the most stunning pub interiors in the city of London now given a new lease of life, paired with honest pub grub and fantastic, Hertfordshire brewed beers. Welcome to the Old Bank of England!

Our pub resides in the old Law Court's branch of the previous Bank of England which operated from 1888 to 1975, although you may not be able to get a loan with us you are bound to receive attentive service, and a unique experience in the country's capital.

Take a trip (not very far) on our vintage Routemaster double decker bus in our suntrap garden; ideal for an event, occasion or just a great pic for Instagram!

OUR SPACES

If you are looking for a unique and picturesque location in the centre of London to host an event of any description, look no further than The Old Bank of England! We have two stunning function rooms available to hire anytime Monday – Saturday.

Our Billiard Room comfortably sits 32 seated guests or 50 standing. The intimate Parlour Room is great for smaller parties of up to 16 with easy access to our courtyard.

If you are looking for space for a larger group, get in touch today as we can cater for up to 300 throughout the entire pub. An experience like no other!

Our Routemaster bus is also available to hire as a drinks only space for special occasions of up to 50, a really unique location!
